

About the Coach: Lloyd Brown

Lloyd attended high school in Palatine, IL and received his degree in Marketing from Ball State University in December of 1998.

At Palatine HS (8A) he was a 4 yr. letterman in football (RB/ LB), basketball (F) and track, breaking sprint and triple jump records, in addition to being part of the Elite Athlete Leadership Program.

The Palatine HS Team won multiple conference and sectional championships. As captain, Lloyd has been awarded Player of the Game and Player of the Week honors by the Chicago Tribune and Daily Herald along with All-Conference honors (MSL North). He was an Illinois All-State RB/ LB in the North-South All-Star Game (1994).

Following HS, Lloyd played for Ball State University as MLB & FB. The team won the 1996 MAC Championship and went to the Las Vegas Bowl. After playing for BSU he served one season as a Student Coach, working with WRs.
