

About the Coach: Lloyd Brown

Lloyd attended HS in Palatine, IL and received his degree in Marketing from Ball State University December 1998.

At Palatine HS (8A) he was a 4 yr. letter winner in football (RB/ LB), basketball (F) and track, setting spring and triple jump records while being part of the Elite Athlete Leadership Program.

The Palatine HS Team won multiple conference and sectional championships. As captain, Lloyd has been awarded Player of the Game and Player of the Week honors by the Chicago Tribune and Daily Herald along with All-Conference honors (MSL North). He was an Illinois All-State RB/ LB in the North-South All-Star Game (1994).

Following HS, Lloyd played for Ball State University as MLB & FB. The team won the 1996 MAC Championship and went to the Las Vegas Bowl. After playing for BSU he served as a Student Coach, working with the team's WRs.
